DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 2. Claims 1-8, 11, 12, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dicker et al. (US 6,176,816). Dicker et al. (hereinafter Dicker) discloses an exercise/training, crew neck garment including sleeves and a torso portion having a pair of flaps (102) being secured to respective sides of the torso/waist portion as shown in figure 10. Further, each of the flaps has hook and loop material on a free end that is adjustably secured over the abdominal region when both flaps are fastened, col. 6, lines 32-65 and as shown in figure 9. Furthermore, the torso portion of the garment includes a corset arrangement as shown in figures 7 and 8. Also, the garment includes a leg portion that is integrally formed with the torso portion as shown in figures 1, 5 and 6.
- 3. Claims 1-5, 9, 10 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nadeau (US 5,810,699). Nadeau discloses an exercise sleeveless garment including a torso portion having a pair of flaps (102, 104) being secured to respective sides of the torso/waist portion as shown in figure 3. Further, each of the flaps has hook and loop material on a free end that is adjustably secured over the abdominal region when both flaps are fastened, col. 4, lines

15-21. Furthermore, the torso portion includes a plurality of pockets having weights therein, col.

3, lines 34-65.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dicker in view of Fairweather (US 5,033,117). Dicker discloses the invention as set forth above except for showing the leg portion having a plurality of pockets adapted to retain weights therein.

Fairweather discloses an exercise garment having a leg portion with a plurality of pockets adapted to retain weights therein as shown in figure 1.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to substitute the bands (20,80) of Dicker with a plurality of weight pockets as taught by Fairweather an alternative but equivalent means of providing resistance to the legs when the garment is worn as known in the art.

Art Unit: 3765

6. Claims 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dicker.

With regard to claim 14, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art that the garment of Dicker can be made of any desired material that was available at the time the device was made or depending on the end use thereof.

With regard to claims 15-17, col. 3, lines 26-30 of Dicker states that mechanical or electrical accessories can be attached to the garment. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art that any electrical or any other desired item can be attached to the garment as required for a particular application or end use thereof.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to Applicant's disclosure.
